

Ayala Foundation USA, in partnership with Filipino-American Alumni Associations at The World Bank Group and The International Monetary Fund, presents:*

Entrepreneurship & Philanthropy

Filipino-American Profiles of Success

Wednesday, March 10, 2010, 5:30-8:00 p.m.

World Bank J Bldg. on 701 18th St., NW, Washington, DC 20433 (Conference Room J1-050)
(No World Bank entry pass required)

A panel discussion with distinguished speakers, who will share their stories, provide valuable insights, and answer some thought-provoking questions.

Diosdado "Dado" Banatao is the managing partner of Tallwood Venture Capital, a firm focusing on semiconductors and semiconductor related technologies. He is credited with developing several key semiconductor technologies and is regarded as a Silicon Valley visionary.

Winston Damarillo is Founding Partner of G2VC and CEO of Exist Global, a strategic software engineering firm. He founded multiple innovative companies, including: Morph Labs, a cloud computing provider, and Gluecode, a software firm later acquired by IBM. Winston was also a key investment professional at Intel Capital.

Sheila Lirio Marcelo is a seasoned entrepreneur whose passion for business and family led to the founding of Care.com. She was also an executive at several successful internet companies, including Upromise and The Ladders.com. She was awarded as one of Fortune's Ten Most Powerful Women in 2009.

Denny Roja, ESQ, is Managing Partner and General Counsel of Acuity Ventures. He is also principal for H. Roark Securities and is presently a partner at White and Lee. He was inducted into Stanford Alumni Multicultural Hall of Fame and is a graduate of the Fordham University Law School. He founded the Filipino Entrepreneurs Network in 2001.

Dani Canubas A long-time entrepreneur since childhood, Dani founded The Canubas Group Corp., which assists entrepreneurs in building their businesses. He also helps businessmen start businesses in the US and the Philippines.

DC Community Partners

- ❖ La Salle Alumni Association
- ❖ University of the Philippines Alumni Association
- ❖ Ateneo University Alumni Association

The Ayala Foundation, USA is a premier non-profit organization that acts as a "Bridge of Hope across the Seas", linking Filipinos in the US to the Philippines. We create opportunities by facilitating meaningful contributions to social development initiatives. With over 100 projects supported in partnership with Philippine non-profits, AF-USA is able to address the country's greatest needs. We assist Filipinos committed to helping the Philippines in supporting projects closest to their hearts.

For more information, contact:

Donations to Ayala Foundation USA are most welcome and needed:

Please make checks payable to Ayala Foundation USA and mail to Ayala Foundation USA, 255 Shoreline Dr, #428, Redwood City, CA 94065
Or to donate by credit card, visit www.af-usa.org, click on Donate Now, look for DC Business Forum in the Drop Down menu

Ayala Foundation USA
marivic@af-usa.org
Phone: (650)598-3126
Fax: (650) 508-8988
www.af-usa.org